Dear Friends,

I am pleased to congratulate the Virginia Commonwealth University Alumni RVA GOLD chapter in hosting the Fifth Annual Alumni Charity Challenge in Richmond, Virginia.

The Alumni Charity Challenge seeks to eradicate hunger in the Commonwealth and has donated more than 16 tons of food since 2013. Your collaboration with other chapters, both in-state and out-of-state, has changed the quality of life for many citizens. I commend you for your support of the Central Virginia Food Bank in making such a remarkable impact in the lives of individuals, families and children.

The work that you are doing is extremely valuable. Please accept my best wishes for continued success

Sincerely,
